June 2020

In accordance with the laws of the Republic of Kazakhstan, a client's individual account can be opened for a legal entity from any of the following categories:

- 1) custodians;
- 2) brokers;
- 3) dealers, including legal entities authorized to be engaged in dealer business without a license, in accordance with the laws of the Republic of Kazakhstan;
- 4) the National Bank;
- 5) foreign depositories;
- 6) foreign custodians;
- 7) the single operator for state property recordkeeping designated under the state property laws of the Republic of Kazakhstan;
- 8) the organization responsible for registration of securities transactions in the Astana International Financial Centre.

As of 1 January 2020, 55 legal entities had depository services agreements with KACD, including the following 11 foreign legal entities:

- Central Depository CJSC (Kyrgyz Republic);
- PJSC ROSBANK;

KACD establishes, maintains, and discontinues business relations by entering into, amending, and terminating agreements in accordance with the KACD's Code of Rules, as follows:

- Submission of an application;
- Submission of required documents;
- Entering into an agreement;
- An order to open an individual account;
- A bank account application.

A KACD's notice of the establishment of business relations is given to confirm that an agreement has been entered into with the client.

To have their business registered or to open a bank account in the Republic of Kazakhstan, a non-Kazakh resident legal entity must apply for registration as taxpayer. For this purpose, the legal entity must receive a business identification number (BIN) from the relevant national revenue authority.

In accordance with the Law of the Republic of Kazakhstan "On National Registers of Identification Numbers", a BIN is a unique number assigned to a legal entity (its branch or representative office) or to an individual entrepreneur operating business through joint entrepreneurship.

- A power of attorney authorizing a legal entity's representative to take legally binding actions on behalf of the legal entity. If issued in a foreign jurisdiction, the power of attorney must be apostilled/legalized (unless otherwise provided for by the relevant agreement between the Republic of Kazakhstan and the foreign jurisdiction).
- An ID document of the legal entity's representative (either the original ID document (if the application for a BIN is filed personally), or a notarized copy (if the documents are submitted by mail or courier)).
- Representative's details.
- A copy of the visa for a legal entity's representative who is a foreign national, except for foreign nationals enjoying visa-free entry to the Republic of Kazakhstan.
- A copy of the migration card for a legal entity's representative who is a foreign national enjoying visa-free entry to the Republic of Kazakhstan.
